

OUR PURPOSE

The Knox County Art League is a non-profit organization of area artists, from novice to professional, representing all forms of artistic expression. The League strives to cultivate creativity within the community, through fellowship, special presentations and events, workshops and educational outreach.

Our History

Original Oil
by Edmund Hayes

Founded in 2001, this fast growing art league consists of members ranging in experience from amateur to professional, and working in a variety of art mediums. The art league membership meets at least four times per year to learn new art concepts, exchange ideas, share information and view demonstrations by featured guests and artists. The league participates monthly in Mount Vernon's "First Fridays" by displaying member's art in the Art League Gallery. Art classes are conducted by league members in the gallery and in the public school system, as well as sponsoring activities throughout the County.

Membership

Knox County Art League Membership is open to all regardless of geographical residence. The league invites individuals with a love of the arts, all arts. Membership includes painters, photographers, sculptors, graphic artists, illustrators, writers, poets, actors, singers, musicians and those simply interested in supporting the arts.

The league is honored to have wonderful sponsors, including Schnormeier Gardens, Ariel Corporation, The Preserve at Misty Meadows, HomeSchoolArts LLC, Koozzz Publishing, Down Home Leather and more.

For more information on becoming a member or sponsor, email: info@kcalmv.org, or visit our website at www.kcalmv.org where you will find all the information needed to join. On the league's site you will find an online membership application and an archive of the most recent newsletters. Membership applications are also available at the gallery.

Education

The league's main goal is to reach out and educate the community in the arts through a growing menu of classes, workshops, and discussion groups.

"Splatter Platter"
by Robin Nordmoe

The art leagues' photography group is extremely active and is growing in number. Field trips and demonstrations about gear, lighting and more are available every month.

"Landscape in Pink"
by Raymond F Bohac Jr

The literary group sponsors open mic poetry readings and poetry workshops, as well as holding book fairs and publishing an anthology of poems, short stories, photos and art work.

The league's "First Friday" activities are always popular and creative. In the past there have been a variety of projects, including community painting and children's art events.

The Knox County Art League gallery is open from Wednesday through Friday 12PM to 5PM and on Saturday 9AM to 2PM. Additional hours will be added. The door is also open for the many special events.

If you are looking for fellowship and support, and are interested in learning or expanding your talents, please join us. The league looks forward to your active participation.
